REPORT OF THE REGISTER OF COPYRIGHTS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 1939-40

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 9, 1940.

SIR: The copyright business and the work of the Copyright Office for the fiscal year July 1, 1939, to June 30, 1940, inclusive, are summarized as follows:

RECEIPTS

The gross receipts during the year were $341,061.35. A balance of $29,974.51, representing deposit accounts and unfinished business, was on hand July 1, 1939, making a total sum of $371,035.86 to be accounted for. Of this amount the sum of $17,975.20 was refunded as excess fees or as fees for articles not registrable, leaving a net balance of $353,060.66. The balance carried over to July 1, 1940, was $32,977.76 (representing deposit accounts and total unfinished business), leaving fees applied during the fiscal year 1939-40 and paid into the Treasury, $320,082.90.

The annual applied fees since July 1, 1897, are shown in exhibit C. (See p. 7.)

EXPENDITURES

The total expenditure for salaries was $274,285.43. The expenditure for supplies, including stationery and other articles and postage on foreign mail matter, etc., was $2,340.68. The total expenditures were, therefore, $276,626.11. This sum, deducted from $320,082.90 fees received and turned into the Treasury, shows $43,456.79 to the credit of the Copyright Office on the items in question.

The total appropriation made by Congress for salaries in the Copyright Office for the fiscal year 1939-40 as carried in the Appropriation Act was $284,160. As a result of reallocations by the Civil Service Commission incident to the reorganization of the Copyright Office there occurred an increase in the salaries of the personnel amounting to $3,180, which sum was made immediately available for the fiscal year 1939-40.

During the period of 43 years (1897-1940) the annual copyright business, as evidenced by the applied fees, increased over fivefold. During these 43 years since the organization of the present Copyright Office the copyright fees applied and paid into the Treasury have amounted to a grand total of $6,896,649, and the total copyright registrations have numbered over five millions (5,713,618). The fees earned ($6,896,649) exceeded by $1,094,884.28 the total of salaries paid during the same period ($5,801,764.72).

The large number of over 9,000,000 books, maps, musical works, periodicals, prints, and other articles deposited during the 43 years were of substantial pecuniary value and of such a character that the accession of most of these to the Library of Congress through the Copyright Office effected a large saving to the purchase fund of the Library equal in amount to their price.

COPYRIGHT ENTRIES AND FEES

The registrations for the fiscal year numbered 176,997. Of these, 127,008 were registrations for published works at $2 each; 38,168 were registrations for unpublished works at $1 each; 1,614 were registrations of photographs without certificates at $1 each. There were also 10,207 registrations of renewals at $1 each. The fees for these registrations amounted to a total of $304,005.

ACCOUNTS

On July 6, 1940, the books of the Copyright Office were balanced for June, the accounts for the fiscal year were closed and the financial statements completed for the Treasury Department, showing that all earned fees to June 30 had been paid into the Treasury.

CORRESPONDENCE

The business of the Copyright Office involves daily contact with the public, transacted for the most part through correspondence. The total letters and parcels received during the fiscal year numbered 242,769, while the letters, parcels, etc., dispatched numbered 281,926. Both figures show a considerable increase over last year.

COPYRIGHT DEPOSITS

The total number of separate articles deposited in compliance with the copyright law which were registered during the fiscal year is 272,041. The number of these articles in each class for the last 5 fiscal years is shown in exhibit E. It is not possible to determine exactly how completely the works which claim copyright are deposited, but in response to inquiries received during the year from the Card Division, Accessions Division, Law Library, and Reading Room in regard to 5,789 books supposed to have been copyrighted but not discovered in the Library, it was found that 2,543 of these works had been received and were actually in the Library; 52 books had been deposited and were still in the Copyright Office; 297 works either were not published, did not claim copyright or for other valid reasons could not be deposited; while in the case of 261 works no answers to our letters of inquiry had been received up to June 30, 1940. Copies of 2,636 works published in recent years were received in response to requests made by the Copyright Office during the period of twelve months.

Our copyright laws have required the deposit of copies for the use of the Library of Congress, and the act in force demands a deposit of two copies of American books and one of foreign books registered. The act provides, however, that of the works deposited for copyright, the Librarian of Congress may determine (1) what books or other articles shall be transferred to the permanent collections of the Library of Congress, including the Law Library, (2) what other books or articles shall be placed in the reserve collections of the Library of Congress for sale or exchange or (3) be transferred to other governmental libraries in the District of Columbia for use therein. The law further provides (4) that articles remaining undisposed of may upon specified conditions be returned to the authors or copyright proprietors.

During the fiscal year a total of 171,738 current articles deposited have been transferred to the Library of Congress. This number included 77,814 books, 69,579 periodical numbers, 19,759 pieces of music, 3,053 maps, and 1,533 photographs and engravings.

Under authority of section 59 of the act of March 4, 1909, 1,661 books were transferred during the fiscal year to other governmental libraries in the District of Columbia for use therein. Under this transfer, up to June 30, 1940, the following libraries have since 1909 received the total number of books indicated below:

Department of Agriculture, 4,617; Department of Commerce, 23,076; Navy Department, 1,879; Treasury Department, 1,496; Bureau of Education, 22,711; Federal Trade Commission, 28,954; Bureau of Standards, 2,094; Army Medical Library, 10,014; Walter Reed Hospital, 2,884; Engineer School, Corps of Engineers, 3,202; Soldiers' Home, 1,600; Public Library of the District of Columbia, 64,082. A number of other libraries have received a smaller number of books. In all, 189,653 volumes have been thus distributed during the last thirty-one years.

The Copyright Act of 1909 authorizes the return to copyright claimants of such deposits as are not needed by the Library of Congress or the Copyright Office, after due notice as required by section 60. In the ordinary routine of business or in response to special requests, 3,013 motion-picture films were so returned during the fiscal year.

COPYRIGHT OFFICE INDEX AND CATALOG OF COPYRIGHT ENTRIES

Under the Copyright Office index system installed in accordance with the reorganization plans, the cards covering all registered material, all mail received, and all assignments recorded during the present fiscal year number approximately 1,221,000.

Beginning with the month of January 1940, part IV of the Catalog of Copyright Entries was changed from a quarterly to a monthly publication. At that time, in the interest of economy, changes were made in the annual index of the catalog.

COPYRIGHT BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS IN CONGRESS

The following bills were introduced in the Seventy-sixth Congress:

S. 3043. A bill to amend and consolidate the acts respecting copyright. Introduced by Senator Thomas of Utah, January 8, 1940, read twice and referred to the Committee on Patents.

H. R. 8263. A bill to reduce the amount of damages for infringement of copyright of musical compositions in certain hotels and other places. Introduced by Mr. O'Brien February 1, 1940, and referred to the Committee on Patents.

S. 547. A bill to amend renewal section 23 of the Copyright Act of March 4, 1909, by deleting from the second proviso clause thereof the words "when such contribution has been separately registered." Approved March 15, 1940. (Public, No. 434, 76th Cong., 3d sess.)

S. 2689. A bill to amend section 33 of the Copyright Act of March 4, 1909, by making more practicable the enforcement of the law prohibiting importation of piratical copies of copyrighted works. Approved April 11, 1940. (Public, No. 450, 76th Cong., 3d sess.)

H. J. Res. 433. To protect the copyrights and patents of foreign exhibitors at the Golden Gate International Exposition, to be held at San Francisco, Calif., in 1940. Approved April 22, 1940. (Public Res. No. 62, 76th Cong., 3d sess.)

H. R. 9665. Identical with H. R. 8263 above. Introduced by Mr. Clason May 6, 1940, and referred to the Committee on Patents.

H. R. 9703. A bill to amend the Copyright Act of March 4, 1909, in important particulars, especially by extending copyright to the performer's interpretive rendition of a musical work and by providing for design copyright in the case of any manufactured product except for motor cars and their accessories.

Introduced by Mr. McGranery May 8, 1940, and referred to the Committee on Patents.

This bill is identical with the bill previously introduced by Mr. McGranery on May 4, 1939 (H. R. 6160), and also identical with the bill introduced by Mr. Daly on March 8, 1939 (H. R. 4871).

INTERNATIONAL COPYRIGHT CONVENTION

Senate Document No. 99, Seventy-sixth Congress, first session. The printing industry and the proposed copyright convention. Presented by Mr. Hayden July 20, 1939, and ordered to be printed. Respectfully submitted.

C. L. BOUVÉ,
Register of Copyrights.

ARCHIBALD MACLEISH,
Librarian of Congress.
